IN A 28-SECOND video, which was posted to Twitter this week by a spokesman for Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel, Palestinian militants in the Gaza Strip appeared to launch rocket attacks at Israelis from densely populated civilian areas.

At least that is what Mr. Netanyahu's spokesman, Ofir Gendelman, said the video portrayed. But his tweet with the footage, which was shared hundreds of times as the conflict between Palestinians and Israelis escalated, was not from Gaza. It was not even from this week.

Instead, the video that he shared, which can be found on many YouTube channels and other video-hosting sites, was from 2018. And according to captions on older versions of the video, it showed militants firing rockets not from Gaza but from Syria or Libya.

The video was just one piece of misinformation that has circulated on Twitter, TikTok, Facebook, WhatsApp and other social media this week about the rising violence between Israelis and Palestinians, as Israeli military ground forces attacked Gaza early on Friday. The false information has included videos, photos and clips of text purported to be from government officials in the region, with posts baselessly claiming early this week that Israeli soldiers had invaded Gaza, or that Palestinian mobs were about to rampage through sleepy Israeli suburbs.

The lies have been amplified as they have been shared thousands of times on Twitter and Facebook, spreading to WhatsApp and Telegram groups that have thousands of members, according to an analysis by The New York Times. The effect of the misinformation is potentially deadly, disinformation experts said, inflaming tensions between Israelis and Palestinians when suspicions and distrust have already run high. —NYT

Saudi Arabia eases travel ban for vaccinated citizens

VACCINATED SAUDIS WILL be allowed to leave the kingdom for the first time in more than a year on Monday as the country eases a ban on international travel aimed at containing the spread of the coronavirus and its new variants.

For the past 14 months, Saudi citizens have mostly been banned from traveling abroad out of concerns that international travel could fuel the outbreak of the virus within the country of more than 30 million people. —AP

COMMERCIAL PROPERTIES PUNE

ADVERTORIAL | An initiative by RED Read. Engage. Deliver.

Leasing continues

the third quarter of the year. Most of the renewals were by the Banking Financial Services and insurance companies (BFSI).

Over the year's co-working spaces had led the revival of Pune's commercial space leasing. Multiple property consultants had talked about how almost 50 per cent of Pune's commercial space leasing was bracketed by this sector mainly in Hinjewadi, Kalyaninagar, Wanworie areas. Co-working space offers a plug and play model for small start ups or remote offices to work for without investing much in infrastructure. Such spaces have also seen a price correction of 3-5 per cent thanks to their demand.

Other than the traditional business district, Pune had seen growth in office spaces much in the periphery with Kharadi, Vimannagar and portions of Yerwada other than Hinjewadi and Tathawade developing good growth of office spaces. Smaller special economic zones (SEZ) s had developed in areas like Kharadi and Yerwada had led to development of these areas in to residential hubs also.

The Post COVID era will have its challenges but sector talks about evolution of models to suit a work culture which adheres to COVID-19 protocols. Thus short term leases, flexible models for leasing are expected to be drivers for the sector. Most offices would continue to deploy a certain portion of their work force from remote or from other locations but are expected to maintain office which would see certain portions coming there regularly. Architectural changes are also expected to be put in places to ensure better ventilation and social distancing norms.

Most of the office spaces in the city are directly or indirectly owned by institutional investors or developers. A lot of green field or brown field development is expected in the city in the upcoming months from industrial houses or institutional investors. Lease wise, the city might have seen a downward correction but there are chances of an upward revision soon.
